

School for Designing a Society 2010

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Applying to the School for Designing a Society is simple, and should only take an hour or so. It starts with a choice.

There are two ways to apply:

1. Apply using this application: print, complete, and mail to:

School for Designing a Society, Admissions
122 Franklin St.
Urbana, IL 61801
USA

2. Apply via phone interview. Phone interviews take approximately one hour. The phone option also gives applicants an opportunity ask questions about the School and steer the conversation according to the applicant's specific interests.

To schedule a phone interview, contact:

Jacob Barton, Admissions
udderbot@gmail.com
(281)755-2260

You are not required to do both.
Either a phone interview or application is sufficient.

School for Designing a Society 2010
APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Current Enrollment

Are you currently enrolled in another school? yes no (If no, skip to the following section.)

School Name: _____

Education level attained: High School/GED Associate's Bachelor's Master's Doctorate

Do you intend to receive academic credit from the school you are currently enrolled in for your work at the School for Designing a Society? yes no

Will you be requesting financial assistance? yes no

Brief Self-Description

Please write a brief paragraph telling which of your interests you are hoping to address through your work at the School for Designing a Society.

Applicant's Attachment

Please attach a sample of your writing, art, or other creative or analytical work from recent years. You may choose to include something from your life that we might not otherwise see, which provides a window into your background/ history, or aspirations and dreams for the future. The student attachment is meant to add some color to the application process. There is no incorrect attachment.

Signature

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Statement of Non-Discrimination

The School for Designing a Society does not discriminate against anyone on the basis of race, color, religion, national or ethnic origin, age, handicap, gender, or sexual orientation.